Reactions come easy
At the press of a button
Feelings fly free
From only a mention

Where do they come from?
How long will it be?
What can be done?
Is there something to see?

Everything is relative
It all coincides
All we should do is live
Let's ride out the tide

Flow free, sea of life
Flow free and run wild
Set yourself free in the sea of life
Flow free and run wild

Dig deep down inside of you
Bring it out into the light
You know that it's all true
You can't help but win the fight

Over and over
It happened again
Inside and outside
All over again

Flow free, sea of life
Flow free and run wild
Set yourself free in the sea of life
Flow free and run wild
Flow free it's your life
Flow free sail away
Flow free it's all right
Start a new day
